
Notice to Policyholders

To Our Customers:

Federal and State law now requires all insurance companies to notify our insureds of non-public information we may obtain.

You provide us with most of the information about you that we use in evaluating your application and servicing your insurance policy. We may collect non-public personal information about you from any of the following sources:

- Information from you on application or other forms;
- Information about your transactions with Grain Dealers Mutual Insurance Company, our affiliates or others; and
- Information we receive from a consumer reporting agency.

Depending on the nature of your coverage, we may collect information about you from third parties, such as other persons proposed for coverage under your policy or the State Motor Vehicle Department concerning your driving record.

We do not disclose any non-public information about our customers or former customers to anyone, except as permitted by law. In some cases this may mean information can be disclosed to third parties without your authorization.

We restrict access to information about you to employees who need to know that information to provide you with products or to provide you benefits or services under them. We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with state and federal regulations to guard your non-public personal information.

You have the right to obtain access to certain items of information we have collected about you, and you have the further right to request correction of information if you feel it is inaccurate.

We would also be pleased to tell you about our policies and procedures for the privacy of your information. For a copy of our privacy policy, which also explains how you may access your information, please contact us in writing at:
